

David Hecht was a big sigh of relief. We had recently remodeled our home and were financed with Wells Fargo. We thought getting a new loan through them was the way to go since they already had our information. Boy were we wrong. Long story short we finally received our loan and finished our remodeling. When we had signed the loan interest rates were higher so we decided to refinance again with Wells Fargo. I guess we didn't learn our lesson. After 4 long months of waiting Wells Fargo couldn't get it accomplished. Dave at Eaglemoney.net called us. After talking with him and looking over his information on the internet we decided to try refinancing again through him. We were so happy and shocked at how quickly our experience was with him. He got us approved and closed within 9 business days. AMAZING. We recommend him to all our friends that are considering refinancing while the rates are low. Thanks again Dave for all your hard work. It was a pleasure doing business with you.
